TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Experience, inspiration and visionary views are the best ingredients for shaping the future of the zoo and aquarium community. WAZA is pleased to see outstanding figures of our community being featured in the international Zoo & Aquarium Video Archive project. Providing such a resource to the community and to the younger generations is an incredible asset and service to all of us. I have also to confess that WAZA is proud to see so many past presidents of the association in the archive and is happy to formally endorse this critical endeavour.
