Dear Darwin —

It appears that Trefflich's Pangolins all came together, from India — no other information.

Joe Kavis refers his to Crasicaudata. They aren't easy to identify and more than one form could have been in shipment.

Trefflich had to get something like $700 for the Hog-badgers. He finally got them to feed but no buyer at last word — may be gone now.

Thanks for note on BC gaur — exact dates for Washington are hard to get. She was very old — and very good in her day.

Thank also for notes re Antwerp — they have some good things.

Ever
Lee
